

Accordionists and Teachers Guild, International

A non-profit organization supporting world-wide accordion activities through active voting membership in the Confédération Internationale des Accordéonistes (CIA) member of the International Music Council (IMC-UNESCO)

January 1, 2011

Members of the ATG, through the payment of Membership Dues, indicate they support the activities of all accordionists, whether they are players, teachers, or students. Your dues help put the accordion in the spotlight and bring it to the attention of the general public each year.

Our dues cycle runs January thru December.

Renewal rate $45.00

In 2007 the ATG was a Co-sponsor of the CIA Coupe Mondiale held in the USA. The ATG sponsored and awarded $10,000 to young musicians through the Galla-Rini International Competition for Classical Accordion held in honor of Anthony Galla-Rini, ATG Emeritus President and Founder.

Your contribution helps the ATG continue their commitment to young accordionists worldwide.
