

NAO FESTIVAL RULES 2015-2016

1. QUALIFICATION

- (a) All competitors must be UK citizens. (Except the NAO International Solo Sections)
- (b) All sections are for AMATEUR musicians only with the exception of the International sections, Recital & Virtuoso Variety Solos, Open Premier Duet, Art Level Group, Entertainment, Showband and Art Level Orchestra. (For a definition of "Professional" see guidance note 1)

2. UK CHAMPIONSHIPS

At the UK Championships there are two types of Performance Sections and the NAO Composers' Portfolio Competition:

- (a) Qualification sections: For the CIA Coupe Mondiale 2016: S1 (Virtuoso), SV1 (Virtuoso Variety) and GE (Ensemble) are qualifying sections for the Classical, Virtuoso Entertainment and Ensemble Categories at the 2015 Coupe Mondiale to be held in October 2016 in Rostov on Don, Russia. For Senior Categories candidates must be born in 1984 or later and for Junior Categories in 1998 or later. There are no restrictions on these sections – candidates do NOT have to compete in Area Festivals and may perform any music they consider suitable for the section to gain qualification (even if performed at previous/current NAO UK Championship Competitions). These are non-competitive sections; candidates will either qualify or not qualify. The NAO will pay the Entry Fee to the CIA for all candidates who qualify.
- (b) UK Championship competitions. All other sections are UK Championship competitions. Competitors may enter one recital solo competition, one age group solo competition, one graded solo competition, one polka solo competition, one musette solo competition, one traditional solo competition, the Frosini solo, Virtuoso Variety Solo, one duet competition, one group competition, Entertainment, Showband, Mixed ability, Club band & one level of graded orchestral competition (with exceptions as defined in Rules 8 & 9).

3. CONDITIONS OF ENTRY FOR ALL UK CHAMPIONSHIP COMPETITIONS.

- (a) Competitors must be of the required age on 30th April 2016.
- (b) In the UK Championships, all entries are restricted to those having competed in the same section in an area festival during the current season. (Except the recital solo sections) To qualify they must perform the complete piece. However, UK Championship Age solo winners (SA1 – SA6) may defend their title in the following festival season without entry in the current area festival section if still eligible by age.

4. OWN CHOICE MUSIC FOR ALL UK CHAMPIONSHIP COMPETITIONS. (See guidance note 9)

- (a) Any competitor placed first, second or third at the UK Championships in 2014 or 2015 (having three or more competitors) is not allowed to play the same own choice music / programme (or any part thereof) at the UK Championships 2016 (even if included within the Test Pieces listed for 2016). With the exception of the recital solos.
- (b) No solo competitor may play the same piece in two different sections at the UK Championships 2016 (with the exception of any arrangements in the Virtuoso Variety Solo).
- (c) At the UK Championships 2016 if an "Own Choice" is not advised to the NAO Secretariat by the 28th March 2015, TBA will appear in the programme and the competitor will be placed LAST.

5. GRADED SOLO SECTIONS AT THE UK CHAMPIONSHIPS.

- (a) In Graded solo sections (Preliminary – Advanced) where there is a separate Test Piece section & Own Choice Piece section in Area festivals, competitors may ONLY qualify to compete at the UK Championships by competing in the TEST Piece section.
- (b) Any competitor placed first in any graded solo section having five competitors or more may not compete again in the same or lower graded section in subsequent years.
- (c) Any competitor placed second or third in any graded solo section having five or more competitors may not compete in lower grade sections in subsequent years.
- (d) Competitors in the Introductory Solo (SG9) may only enter this section on one occasion and may NOT compete in any other SOLO section at the same UK Championships
- (e) The Graded Solo Own Choice Piece must appear in the NAO compiled list for the corresponding grade – This is available on the NAO website or on request (by grade) from the NAO Secretariat. Any competitor playing that offers an incorrect piece will be notified 14 days of the receipt of entry and any competitor knowingly performing an incorrect piece will be placed last
- (f) Any Competitor entering both the Championship Age Solo Sections (SA1 - SA6) and the Graded Solo Sections must NOT choose music which is more than two grades higher for the Age Solo section than the Graded Solo Section entered.

6. DUET SECTIONS AT THE UK CHAMPIONSHIPS.

- (a) Accordion Duets consist of two persons each playing an accordion.
- (b) Any duet partnership placed first in any graded duet section having FIVE or more competing entries may not compete in the same or a lower graded section in subsequent years.
- (c) Any duet partnership placed second or third in any graded duet section having FIVE or more competing entries may not compete in a lower graded section in subsequent years.
- (d) That both duet members must be NAO members to qualify for the reduced entry fee.

NAO National Composers' Competition Rules 2016

All competition entries will be judged for inclusion in the NAO Portfolio 2016.

- (a) All composition entries must be played on an accordion.
- (b) Pieces can be written in any style eg. Classical, Blues or Jazz style suitable for any age group but must not be arrangements of already published material.
- (c) The composer may not necessarily be a single person. A composition by a partnership or group of people is acceptable.

Catagories for submission of entries into:

Section 1 SOLO

(a) Professional Solo (CS1)

For a composition (unpublished) by an entrant who has won the Amateur Section (as organised by the North Staffs Accordion Club / NAO) on two consecutive occasions, or on 1st January 2015: (a) teaches music for a living, either on a part-time or full time basis, or (b) has had two or more compositions published for purchase in their own right i.e. not just an inclusion in a Magazine.

(b) Amateur Solo (CS2)

For a composition (unpublished) by an entrant who does not fall under the definition of "professional" above, irrespective of age.

(c) Junior Solo (CS3)

For a composition (unpublished) by an entrant falling under the "amateur" definition aged 18 and under (as of the 30th April 2016) This Junior section will be subdivided into age groups: 18 & Under (for those currently studying for A levels / higher), 16 & Under (for those currently studying for GCSE / Standards) and 12 & Under - subject to the number of entries.)

Section 2 DUET / ENSEMBLE (CE)

For a composition (unpublished) written for two, three or more accordion parts.

All entries will also be graded by the NAO and the adjudicators will be asked to consider their suitability for submission (if subsequently published) to the NAO

Music Committee as Test Pieces in NAO sections in future years. Solo / Duet compositions would also be submitted to the BCA for consideration in future examination syllabi.

ENTRIES

- (a) Official Entry Forms must be used (available from January 2016), which must reach the NAO by the 28th March 2016, accompanied by the appropriate Fees - Reduced entry fee concessions apply only to fully paid up NAO members.
- (b) A recorded version, CD, DVD or Audio Cassette should accompany the Entry Form. (Candidates are encouraged to take care with the quality of the recording).

RULES

- (a) All competitors must be UK citizens or residents.
- (b) The composition is to be entirely original and not breach any copyright.
- (c) The composition may be for single or multiple accordion, or accordion with other instrument(s) where the accordion Predominately takes the lead.
- (d) Compositions submitted are to be no more than 5 minutes in duration.
- (e) Competitors may enter at most TWO compositions into each section.
- (f) It is strongly advised that entrants ORGANISE for their composition to be performed live at the competition which will be held on Sunday 19th April 2016 in the Adelphi Hotel, Liverpool. This avoids a problem if no player is available to play the piece the submitted recording being used as a substitute.
- (g) Bass stave with chords depicted as either a) a single note plus chord symbol, or b) chord, with or without the chord symbol] must be included.
- (h) Lyrics may be included but it is the music that will be judged only. Care not to exceed the 5 minute maximum time limit should be taken when numerous verses are included.
- (i) It would be ideal if the Composition is submitted in Computer format however a hand-written submission on manuscript paper is acceptable. Neat work is requested and points may be deducted for untidy submissions. The piece should have its name, the name of the composer(s), and include the words "Copyright" followed by composer's name and the year. During the Competition the Composition will be known only by a number, the Composers name will not be known to the Adjudication Panel or Audience.
- (j) A recording CD or DVD of the entry is to be included with the accordion part played on acoustic accordion with no electronic accompaniment (other than bass and/or Electronium in the case of a band or group). This recording is not judged as part of the competition but is required a) to confirm that the composition is playable, and b) as a guide to the adjudicator as to what is intended by the composer and c) if no player is available to play the piece at the live performance the recording may be used as a substitute.

ADJUDICATION Will be under the auspices of the NAO - The competition is for the best composition, not the best performance. Subject to the number of entries an Elimination process may apply prior to the event.

The results will be an average of the Adjudicators marks. The Adjudicator's report will award total points taking into consideration Technical Accuracy—Originality—Overall Content— Edit — Form—Presentation

PROTESTS connected with this category must made in writing and handed to the organiser before the end of the festival. In an event of the dispute not being resolved during the festival, a formal written protest may be sent within one month to the NAO Secretariat, who will refer the matter to the Executive Committee for arbitration. Their decision will be final.

In the event of any entry knowingly or otherwise breaching copyright it will be withdrawn after consultation with the Composer concerned.
